To Register West Virginia Bred and/or Sired

1. Must meet criteria set forth by the West Virginia Thoroughbred Development Fund (WV Code 19-23-13b)
2. Must provide a copy of the Jockey Club Papers.
3. Copy of the Affidavit of a mare foaling in West Virginia if required (non-resident mare OR mare that was not a resident mare when bred)
4. Official Bill of Sale if ownership of horse has changed since the Jockey Club papers were issued.
5. All registrations subject to review by the West Virginia Racing Commission.

To be eligible to participate in the West Virginia restricted races and to receive bonus money from the West Virginia Thoroughbred Development Fund, all horses must be registered with the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association, Inc.

In order to process any foal registrations for Breeders/Owners under the residency clause of WV Code 19-23-13b for foals born in 2023, the WVTBA office must have two (2) of the three (3) forms listed below of current proof of residency on file:

1. Residential Utility Bill
2. Personal Property Tax Receipt
3. Voters Registration Card
